BOYS' KHAKI SUITS

Are Hard to Get—But We Have a New Supply

Only a limited quantity, however. Norfolk Suits made of the genuine U. S. government standard khaki fabric, in sizes 8 to 18 years, $5.00 each.

The present supply of U. S. government standard khaki is practically off the market for this and next season, so it will be well-nigh impossible to get garments of this khaki.

Clearance of Panama Hats, $1.95 Each. About 18 hats in all, that formerly sold from $4.50 to $6.

Genuine Ecuadorian Panama Hats, in shapes suitable for boys' and girls' wear; elegant qualities.

President Wilson and Cabinet Leave Town for Week-End Trips

Mrs. Lansing Gives Tea for Members of Norwegian Mission—Secretary Baker Has Gone to Cleveland for Week-End. Secretary and Mrs. Daniels Down River on Sylph.

The President, accompanied by Mrs. Lansing, left Washington yesterday afternoon on board the Mayflower, for a water trip which will last until Monday. They were accompanied from the White House.

Mrs. Robert Lansing was hostess at an interesting tea yesterday afternoon when her guests were Dr. Nathan, head of the commission from Norway, and members of his party. The Minister of Norway, Mr. Bryn, was also of the party.

Mrs. John Foster Dulles, the niece of Mrs. Lansing, assisted her in the entertainment of the guests, the event being quite informal.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing and Mr. and Mrs. Dulles expect to attend service at Pohick Church in Virginia tomorrow morning.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels left Washington late yesterday afternoon on board the Sylph, for a trip down the Potomac and into adjacent waters. Their companion was the Secretary's aid, Mr. T. L. Jefferson, who is on duty at the Navy Department on Monday.

Mr. Baker, Secretary of War, left Washington last evening for Cleveland, and expects to return here the first of the week.

Judge and Mrs. Shackelford Miller, and Mr. Neville Miller, of Louisville, Ky., arrived in Washington yesterday preparatory to attending the wedding this afternoon of their son, Mr. Shackelford Miller, and Miss Frances Effinger, which will take place at 5 o'clock at the home of Judge and Mrs. Miller and Mrs. T. L. Jefferson, and Mrs. Taylor Adams, who arrived together are staying at the Grafton, where Mr. and Mrs. Effinger made their home for several seasons.

Mr. and Mrs. Effinger are entertaining their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig Effinger, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Hall, of Staunton, Va., are also in town for the wedding.

The bridegroom and some of the out-of-town guests, including Mrs. Archibald Hall, of Mobile, Ala., were entertained at dinner last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Effinger.

The bridegroom is in the Reserve Officers' Training Camp, and like other weddings of the season, the uncertainty of orders makes the event unusually quiet and simple in arrangement. He is the son of Judge Miller, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Kentucky, and graduated from Harvard Law School in June.

Mrs. W. W. Galbraith, wife of Lieut. Commander Galbraith, U. S. N., who is now on sea duty, will leave Washington today for New York, where she will remain for some time. Commander and Mrs. Galbraith occupied the residence 2204 R street, for some time, but recently Mrs. Galbraith came up and has been staying at the Shoreham.

Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, who has been making a series of visits, is expected back at the White House in about a fortnight.

The Belgian minister, Baron E. de Cartier de Marchienne, returned to town last night after spending several days in New York.

Senator Ollie James, who has been in New York for a short visit, returned to Washington yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bennett will entertain at dinner at the Army and Navy Club next Tuesday evening in compliment to Miss Dorothy Shuy and her fiancé, Mr. Christopher F.

Smith, secretary to the Norwegian Legation, whose marriage will take place on Thursday. Their daughter, Miss Amy Bennett, and Miss Edith Temple Grace will be Miss Shuy's bridesmaids and Mrs. Charles J. Kappler, sister of the bride, will be matron of honor. Mr. Smith will give his bachelor dinner next Monday evening for his ushers, six in number, and the best man, William Maltbe Johansen, secretary of the Norwegian Legation, and on Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Shuy will entertain the bridal party at dinner. Mrs. Kappler will give a luncheon tomorrow for her sister.

Mrs. Delos Blodgett and her family left yesterday for a motor trip. The party, which includes Mrs. Blodgett and her daughter, Miss Mona Blodgett; Miss Matthews, Miss Helen Blodgett and her cousin, Miss Maize Porchen, spent last night at Philadelphia, and will go early today to New York. Mr. Delos Blodgett, who is there at the Yale Club, will have a motor party for them tonight and tomorrow they will all motor to Long Island to spend the week-end, some of Mr. Blodgett's associates in the Ambulance Training Corps accompanying them. Mrs. Blodgett and her party will return here the middle of the week.

Miss Margaret Read, who is making a series of visits in the North, is now the guest of Mrs. Clement A. Griscom, of Philadelphia, at her summer home, Ocean Mound, at Watch Hill, R. I.

Miss M. E. Hawke, Mrs. J. B. Saxton and Miss Saxton, of Washington, who are making an automobile tour of the coast resorts, are guests of the Hotel St. Charles, Atlantic City.

Among the Washingtonians at the Grand Atlantic Hotel, Atlantic City, are Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Mason, Mr. W. T. Hennessey and Mr. F. Cunningham.

MILITARY SERVICE AT COVENANT CHURCH

Special Programs Arranged in Other Houses of Worship.

A military communion service for all the men and women in and around the city of Washington who are engaged in any branch of the military or governmental service, has been arranged for 10:30 Sunday morning at the Church of the Covenant, Connecticut Avenue and N Street.

The service is planned for all, but especially for the men of the various camps who are soon to leave the community for service in other places, that they may have a last opportunity to receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper here in Washington.

Rev. Thomas W. Hooper, a reserve officer at Fort Myer and a Presbyterian minister from Mitchell, Va., will deliver the brief address of the service in uniform. Dr. Charles Wood, minister of the church, is returning from Jamestown, Rhode Island, where he has been spending his vacation, to conduct the service. Student officers and other military men will dispense the communion elements to those who attend. They are being selected from various denominations in order that members of every church may feel free to commune in the service.

A novel meeting was held by the Christian Endeavor Union of the District, last Monday night, when the members of the various societies and their friends gathered at the Imperial Baptist Church, under the leadership of their president, walked through the darkness to a spot in the wilds of Rock Creek Park and listened to very interesting and inspiring talks by Earl Taggart, former president of the D. C. Union, Mr. Fisher, former president of the Colorado State Union, and Homer Edson, former vice president of the E. C. Union.

The Sunday evening meetings of the Christian Endeavor society of the Church of the Reformation will be held at 8 o'clock during the last three Sundays in August, in order to enable the members to visit other societies, and to enable the members of other societies to visit them.

The special musical service at the Church of the Covenant tonight will be given by Mrs. Robert Fatt, soprano; Herman Rakemann, violinist; Richard Lorleberg, cellist; W. S. Blanchard, pianist, and Claude Robeson, organist.

Rev. J. M. Long, of Hyattsville, Md., will have charge of the Temple Baptist Church pulpit. Teach and N streets northwest, tomorrow morning and evening in the absence of the pastor, Dr. Muir.

Rev. E. K. Hardin, D.D., pastor of the Mount Vernon M. E. Church South, will speak at the open-air service in Henry Park, Seventh and B streets southwest, tomorrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Miss Gladys Price will sing several solos.

In the absence of the pastor, Homer J. Councillor will occupy the pulpit at the Park Road Methodist Protestant Church in the morning, and Mr. C. E. Miner, of the Y. M. C. A., will have charge of the service in the evening.

"Omo Class" of Brightwood Park Methodist Church tomorrow morning. N. W. Preston, secretary to Representative Stephens, of Nebraska, will deliver an address at the Y. M. C. A. open-air service in Lincoln Park tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Page McK. Etchison, religious work director of the Y. M. C. A., will be in charge of the morning service at Brightwood Park M. E. Church.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Bowers G. Everard Dunkum, associate religious work director, Y. M. C. A., will speak tomorrow morning at the Fifteenth Street Christian Church.

G. Everard Dunkum will deliver the address before the Epworth League of the Chevy Chase M. E. Church tomorrow evening.

Mr. John Carruthers, Minister's Assistant.

Mr. Richard Lancaster, Field Assistant in Affiliation with Y. M. C. A., on leave as minister from Memorial Church, Winchester, Va.

Mr. Wilbert Cooke, Director of Bible Distribution in Affiliation with Pocket Testament League.

Mr. Herbert E. Day, Social Registration Secretary, at the Y. M. C. A., 3 to 5 daily, to meet young men.
